

You Have What It Takes!

A Tool For Identifying Your Skills As An Early Childhood Advocate

Infants and toddlers don't have a voice in the public policy process, but you do! You can be an effective advocate for very young children and their families, and you already have the skills to do it. In fact, your abilities, knowledge, and experience give you the foundation to be an excellent advocate.

Use this tool to make a plan to advocate for Early Head Start or Migrant and Seasonal Head Start!
