

Region III T/TA Network

Fostering Healing and Hope: Using Trauma Attuned Practices

Hosted by the Virginia Head Start Association

In this virtual professional development series presented by the National Center on Health, Behavioral Health, and Safety recipients will learn how trauma attuned practices centralizes relationships to address the disorganizing force of trauma that can ripple through a system.

National Center on Health, Behavioral Health, and Safety

Dr. Vilma Reyes, Assistant Clinical Professor,
Child Trauma Research Program, UCSF

Dr. Miriam Dimmler, Professor, Associate Director, Community Mental Health Initiative
Director, Child Trauma Research Program, UCSF

Dr. Gina Samson, Child-Parent Psychotherapist

Series Dates & Times

Part 1:

January 27, 2022

11:30am—1:30pm

Acknowledging and Naming Trauma in Systems

Part 2:

February 24, 2022

11:30am—1:30pm

Shifting to Healing Centered Systems

Part 3:

March 3, 2022

12:00 - 2:30pm

Healthy People Make Healthy Systems

Register Here

